PUBLISHED WEEKLY, BY
C. R. PATTISON.

PRESIDENT Haven at Hewitt Hall, Tuesday evening June 19th. Subject, "The Newspaper Press."

ADVERTISER AND TRIBUNE BAN-QUET, JUNE 19TH, 1866.

This was a rare occasion. It was the celebration of the thirtieth anniversary of the paper. In addition to the editorial staff and attachées, there was a generous attendance on the part of the fraternity in the State. The bill of fare was made up of the choicest dishes. Half a dozen such banquets would kill an ordinary man. One in a generation will do very well. As a matter of curiosity to our readers, we give the bill:

SOUPS—Green Tomato Oyster
OYSTERS—Escaloped Oysters, Fried Oysters, Raw Oysters, Scalloped Oysters, Small Oysters PIES—Oysters, Systers, Stewed with Clams.

COLD ENTREES—Boned Turkey, with Aspic
Jelly, Sardines, Salade de Homard, Pate de Foie Gras, Lobster en Aspic, Salade de Poulet, Language d'Asperges, Mornie, Aspic of Oysters.

ORNAMENTALS—Turkey à la Anglaise, Westhampton Ham, a la Flamont, Pyramid of Sugar Kisses, Chicken Garnished, Tongues in Grapes, Pyramid of Macaroni, Allegorical Centre Piece, Illuminated.

RELISHES—Chow Chow, Mixed Pickles, Olives, French Mustard, Worcestershire Sauce, Walnut Catsup, Mushroom Catsup, London Club Sause.

CONFECTORY—Charlotte Russe, Sugar Kisses, Madalines, Champagne Jelly, Rum Jelly, Rose Drops, Lemon Drops, Lady Cake, Silver Cake, Fruit Cake Burgundy Jelly, Metropolitan Cake, Lady Fingers, Peppermint Drops, Strawberry Marangue.

FAUTS—Paper Shell Almonds, Pine Apples, Oranges, Pecans, London Layer Raisins, Strawberries Apples, Figs.

CREAMS—Vanilla Ice Cream, Strawberry Ice Cream, Roman Punch, Coffee, Chocolate.

St. James Hall did itself credit. The physical man being bountifully provided for, next came "The feast of reason and the flow of soul." Hon. E. C. Walker presided and made some happy remarks. Letters were read of an interesting character, from the early editors and proprietors, containing many incidents and statistics well worthy a place in the historical records of the State. Mr. Johnstone, for many years proprietor and editor, gave some important facts. Gov. Blair made some noble remarks, developing the growth and power of the Press. James F. Conover, of the editorial staff, made some pertinent remarks in reference to the grand mission of the Press—its true, independent character. One of the wittiest sentiments was given by Mr. Lewis, of the Western Rural, weaving a smile on the editor's face.

THE ADVERTISER AND TRIBUNE, JUNE 11, 1866—May its Scripta continue to enjoy a wide and ever-increasing circulation; while we Conover its columns, may we never read a paragraph to make our Baxter with rage; may our Baker be prompt to his toast, and our Porter sparkle fresh every morning; and when trouble comes in life's Stone-y Lane, as it will to both the Young and Elder Frye, may there be one to Backus to the last—by George!

The following were capital.

By F. Morley:

GEORGE DAWSON—One of the early editors of the Advertiser, who has honored the Press of all the States by his personal connection with two of them.

May the "Evening Journal" of his life record an abundant fulfilment of all the best promises of its morning "Advertiser."

By E. C. Walker:

THE SOLDIER EDITOR OF THE AD-VERTISER—Gen. Alpheus S. Williams, One of the Great Heroes of Sherman's march. Michigan is proud of him.

By Lewis J. Bates:

MICHIGAN—By the aid of the Tribune and Advertiser, the birthplace of the only successful party of Freedom—Illinois had only to link on (Lincoln) to her lead to become immortal.

We give the ninth toast appropriately acknowledging the services of the Country Press:

THE INTERIOR PRESS OF THE STATE

—As Michigan is without a parallel in its natural resources—it's white wheat, its forests of pine, its iron mountains, its copper veins, its salt wells, and its blue lakes—so in its energetic and intelligent State Press it knows no equal and fears no parallel.

Music—Michigan, my Michigan.

Responses by Mr. Hamilton of the Monroe Commercial, Mr. Buffington of the Port Huron Press, and Mr. Pattison of the Ypsilanti Commercial, who gave the following sentiment:

THE CITY AND COUNTRY PRESS—Co-workers in the diffusion of knowledge among the people, may they zealously respect each other's interests, and thus harmoniously and successfully perform their true and exalted mission.

May the Advertiser and Tribune, sustaining the right, battling on as in a past generation for the prime, grand principles of justice, live to see many generations, ever ripening in age, and yet ever retaining the locks of youth, and beauty.

PRESIDENT Haven at Hewitt Hall, Tuesday evening June 19th. Subject, "The Newspaper Press."

Farmers,

By all means read the extract of an address by Gov. Crapo at a Sheep Shearing Festival, on the 1st and 4th pages.

THE BLOOD OF THE MARTYRS IS THE SEED OF THE CHURCH.

The President is attempting to force "my policy" upon the nation by turning out of office the men who gave their time, money, and votes to elect him, and putting Democrats, men who did all they could to defeat him, in their places. The leaders of the Radicals are falling thickly beneath the guillotine. Go on. So far as the advancement of the Republican cause, the sure triumph of radicalism is concerned, we trust, Mr. President, that you will make thorough work. Every martyr you make is worth a dozen votes to our cause. "The blood of the martyrs is the seed of the church."

BAD RECORD.

The Connecticut Senate adopted the following resolution:

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened, That our Senators and Representatives in Congress be and are hereby requested to urge the passage of such amendments to the Constitution of the United States as will secure to the white men of Connecticut a representation in Congress equal to that accorded to the white men of South Carolina.

And every Democratic member voted—No. Keep it before the people that the sham Democracy are willing that a white voter in South Carolina should have equal power and influence in the nation to two white voters in Michigan. The Democratic party has been so used to cringe and bow the knee to the ex-slave-monger South Carolina Aristocrats, that they don't get over it. They keep on bowing and scraping.

Servile men! willing to surrender to traitors, subdued but unrepentant, twice the political power enjoyed by loyal men of the North.

Shame! Shame!

PRESIDENT Haven at Hewitt Hall, Tuesday evening June 19th. Subject, "The Newspaper Press."

NOTES BY THE WAY.

BY HON. WM. H. PATTISON.

Saline, June 9th, 1866.

EDITOR COMMERCIAL:—Having been on a flying visit during the past few weeks, I offer, at your request, a few notes of observation.

Leaving Detroit, I took passage with Captain McCay, "City of Cleveland," enjoying a good night's rest, and arriving at Cleveland, making connection with the C. C. & C. R. next morning.

This road passes through the central portion of Ohio, and probably gives the traveler a pretty good opportunity of forming an opinion of the state of the state country.

Between Cleveland and Columbus the wheat is a desided failure. I should not think there could possibly be one-fourth an average crop. The same may be said of clover. The apple crop promises to be large; of Spring crops it was too early to judge at the time of my visit.

Returning to Cleveland and going east by the Lake Shore Road, the growing wheat steadily improves in appearance, and I think, including the region between Cleveland and Buffalo, there will be about half a crop.

From personal observation, as well as from statements of citizens from various portions of New York, I think present appearances in-icate an average crop of wheat in that State, and the fruit prospect is very flattering.

The season so far, in Ohio, Penn., N.

Y., and New England, has been dry and cold, and consequently unfavorable for Spring crops; still, if June, July and August are favorable, we shall no doubt have abundant crops.

I spent about two weeks in Vermont, most of the time at the rather ancient looking village of Pawlet, Rutland Co.

Here is considerable water power, formerly fully occupied in various manufactories of Wool and Cotton, &c. but for some reason the mills have gone down, and as a sequence the once busi-and prosperous town is now a very quiet and innocent looking burgh.—

For my own gratification I copied verbatim the following inscription from a stone in the sadly neglected cemetery:

"In memory of Mrs. Margaret Wheler

Who died May 14th, 1776, aged 88 years. It is remembered that this was the first Parson Inter'd in this graveyard.

N. B. Her daughter Alice, from a full regard to her Memory, has caused this stone to be erected."

Notwithstanding the rough, mountainous country generally, which to a western eye appears almost impractical for agricultural purposes, the people find industry and frugality rewarded by competence and wealth. The western man will notice at once their sobriety and generally good morals in contrast with the fast west. Here among the mountains, an enlightened public opinion maintains the laws for bidding the sale of spirituous liquors as a beverage. I was placed under special obligations for the generous and unpretending hospitality of many of the citizens, and shall recur to this as one of the most pleasant visits in my tour.

The next point of interest to me was at Salem, Washington Co., N. Y., where I was most agreeably entertained by Dr. Asa Fitch, New York State Entomologist, and had the pleasure of examining his vast collection of insect specimens, among which are many very curious and interesting ones. Of the family of butterflies he has one of great size, measuring from point to point of its wings, eleven inches. Its colors are drab and brown, beautifully mottled. Another equally rare specimen of this family is a smaller one without color or coating of its wings, they being simply transparent membranes. Both the above are natives of Brazil. S. A. The Doctor has done the agricultural interest of the country good service in his able investigations and reports upon the various impious insects which are constantly the cause of so much loss and perplexity to the agriculturalist, and I am glad to know that his researches in this science are highly appreciated in his own State.

Would not our own State be greatly benefited by placing a copy of his efforts in each school library?

PRESTON HAVEN at Hewitt Hall, Tuesday evening June 19th. Subject, "The Newspaper Press."

NEW CLOTHES.—At the Board of Trade, yesterday, three samples of cloth, made by the new Ypsilanti Woolen Mill, were exhibited. These were specimens of the first work of the mill, and certainly speak well for the manufacturer. They were much admired and praised by the members of the Board who were present.—Tribune.

MICHIGAN CLOTH.—Some very excellent specimens of cloth, manufactured at the new woolen factory at Ypsilanti, were exhibited at the Board of Trade rooms on Thursday, and attracted the very general attention of members, and elicited much admiration and praise. They were specimens of the first work of the factory.—Post.

SODA FOUNTAINS.

At Smith & Bro., capital, capital, complete!

It makes our mouth water just to think of their nice soda. Just step in the next warm day, and try it. But if you are over the river, avoid the Devil's saloons, and go to Kingsbury, and he will give you a nice glass of soda. Such has been our experience this hot weather.

IRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, CATARRH OF THE BLADDER.

STRANGURY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said of its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms.

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back and through the hips? A teaspoonful a day of the Constitution Water will relieve you like magic.

PHYSICIANS.

Have long since given up the use of ipecac, cathartics and juniper in the treatment of these diseases, and only use them for the want of a better remedy.

To the Public.
To prevent any misapprehension with regard to the object of the lecture of President

Haven on Tuesday evening the 19th inst, the undersigned hereby announces that the enterprise is a joint one between the publishers of the SENTINEL and COMMERCIAL, and that the expenses and profits will be shared equally. In their capacity as publishers, they invite their respective friends and the public generally to extend a general patronage, not doubting but that they will be well repaid by the lecture for both time and money spent.

G. WOODRUFF.
C. R. PATTISON.

The Press, while in various ways it gives more space, time and money to advance all the interests of public concern, according to its means, than any other class or profession, it very seldom asks any reciprocal favors. The outside world little appreciates the care, the arduous labor, the heavy expense of conducting a public journal. The life of an editor is often cut short. Recreation he must have or die. And a traveling tour is always a benefit to his readers. On long lines of travel he is often favored with a pass, but his readers as well as himself soon tire of these monotonous routes and notes. He needs, for their sakes as well as for his own, to get abroad into the outside world, and refresh his over-drawn mental powers. But aside from the stimulus given to your local paper, you will be abundantly paid by hearing the lecture. We guarantee you a sparkling, attractive, intellectual treat.

Young Men's Society.
This society has for its main object the founding of a public library—also the employment of lecturers, and the holding of meetings for discussion and debate. A tri-filing sum from many persons will secure the accomplishment of the above beneficent aims. Let us each and every one do our part.
Call on D. B. Greene, Corresponding Secretary, or F. Bogardus, Treasurer, and leave your name and money. Such a Society, properly conducted, will inspire many a young man, a many a young woman, with exalted purposes, and thus prove a grand blessing to society.

Dangerous.
A boy was killed at Jackson yesterday by jumping on and off a passing train. It is dangerous business. It is constantly being done at our depot. Mr. Wheeler has called our attention to it. Boys of a most reckless character frequent our depot, pilfering and doing other mischief, besides endangering their own lives. Mr. W. has concluded to enforce the city ordinance. good.

Found Guilty.
Several boys were tried before Mr. Yost, Justice over the river, for stealing, and two of them, a son of Mr. Carl and a son of Mr.
O'Neil, found guilty. They are now in the Lock Up. Some of these boys need a few years training in the Reform School.

General Agency Office.
Our readers will not fail to call at the office of Holmes & Jenness, if they want their real estate sold, property insured, or life insured against accidents. New Advertisement

A son of Mr. Martin was drowned above the upper dam last Saturday. The little fellow accidentally slipped into the pond.

Healing of the Sick by the Laying on of Hands.

Dr. D. A. PEASE, Jr., will remain at the Hawkins House for the treatment of patients until June 30th. Persons out of health will do well to give him a call.

During his short stay here, he has performed some remarkable cures, among which are the following:

Mrs. A. W. Munroe, Ypsilanti, Mich. Neuralgia and Deafness of many years standing.
Cured by one operation.

Mrs. Daniel Masters, Paint Creek, Washington Co., Mich., Paralysis of right side; for four years unable to dress without assistance; after first operation could use arm and hand well, and can now dress without help.

Mr. Wm. Nettleton, Saline, Mich. Lam-Shoulder caused by sprain; unable to use right arm without great pain; now has perfect use of arm and hand, and is doing heavy work.

D. A. PEASE, Jr.

Cushman.
The following is a fair sample of the notices given of Mr. Cushman by the Press and individuals wherever he has been. He sings here tonight at Hewitt Hall. Tickets 25cts, reserved seats, 50cts.

BIRMINGHAM, Sept. 13, 1865.
Hon. JOHN G. CRAWFORD—Dear Sir: I know I am conferring a great favor on you and the good people of H. in asking you to have them to turn out to hear Cushman. He has given us two concerts here, and I never knew a case where everybody felt that they had got their money's worth more completely than that in going to hear him. Yours truly, R. E. TROWBRIDGE,

Member of Congress 5th District Mich.

Our citizens will be glad to learn that Le Grand B. Cushman, so well remembered by those who were fortunate enough to hear him last fall, is to give one of his infinitesimal and unexceptional entertainments at Union Hall, on Monday evening next, assisted by the talented and gentlemanly organist, Prof. Burke.
It is sufficient to say of Mr. Cushman that he does not hesitate to visit the same locality a second or even a third time, each occasion being invariably attended with increased success.
We can assure our readers that they will be both amused and instructed by attending.— Jackson Citizen, March 5, 1866.

The Flower Queen.

Or Coronation of the Rose, was presented on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, under the direction of Prof. Foote. The stage was adorned with a befitting forest. The flowers, twenty in number, meet in this forest dell to clothe their Queen. The Rose is chosen and crowned. A Recluse, Prof. Foote, who has sought happiness in this retired spot, learns by the scene lessons of duty, and returns to activity and usefulness. Miss Anna Foote acted well the Queen, and all the girls did admirably. A large troop of little girls developed the easy receptivity of early youth by the readiness with which they sung and acted their parts. The twilight scene, enlivened by a bevy of little girls, hopping in a circle, and Cupid, represented gracefully by Master Wily Post, on the alert with bent bow to send his arrow at some fair one, drew the loudest applause. Mr. L. C. V. Wheat, Piani, disconcerted excellent music.

A Novelty.

We have seen a copy of the "Norristown HERALD," published in 1804—62 years ago —in the possession of E. C. Hawkins. Mr.
H. has forwarded the copy to President Haven, giving him an opportunity to use it in his proposed lecture to our citizens on the 19th Inst.

Fire.

Edwards and Coopers' kiln took fire Thursday afternoon, destroying several thousand feet of valuable lumber and very much retarding their building operations. A part of the lumber was saved.

CURRENT EVENTS.

The Fenian invasion has proved a failure.
Between the two grindstones Canada and our Government, they have gone under. Roberts has issued a hilarious address. The leaders are de-determined not to give up. Congress seems determined that in connection with its suppression of the Fenians the Government shall demand full indemnity from England for her invasion of neutrality during the late war. Now is the proper time to press our claims. Gen. Meade tendered to the Fenians the transportation home. Gen. Roberts still holds out and refuses bail. He is in jail. It is reported that there are about 10,000 Fenians in Mich. —"My Policy" works badly in North Carolina. We met several soldiers of the 28th Mich. Infantry. They unanimously agreed in the statement that a deep and bitter spirit exists. The life of a Union man is not safe. Officers and men are being assassinated. At the close of the war the rebels were very humble. Johnson's policy which is very popular among them has made them rabid. —The Constitutional Amendments have passed the Senate, 33 to 11. The CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS HAVE PASSED THE HOUSE, 120 to 32. EVERY REPUBLICAN VOTED FOR THEM.

We go before the country on a basis that insures a most overwhelming victory.
We shall carry every Free State, have a larger majority in Congress than at present. Sweep the board—mark the prediction.

The following episode occurred when the vote was being taken:
"Mr. Eldridge, in ridicule, announced that if Mr. Brooks, of N. Y. and Mr.
Voorhees of Indiana, had not been turned out of their seats, they would have voted "no."
To which Mr. Stevens added that if Jeff Davis was here he would have voted the same way. [Laughter and applause.]

Mr. Wentworth added—So would Jake Thomson.

We add—Every Democrat of the North.
